The Province of Alberta has the right to expect a most strenuous enforcement of all law from the Provincial Police Commission. The Government has recently authorized the expenditure of $341,000 for the coming year. The H. N. W. M. P. cost the province $75,000 annually and they did all the police work except in the cities and the enforcement of the Liquor Act. This enormous sum placed in the hands of the Police Commission should enable them to give the most effective law enforcement of any province in the Dominion of Canada. — High River Times.

TO LOAFERS

(By Canada Food Board)
Tramps, loafers, "sperts" and gentlemen of leisure who hang around poolrooms, picture shows, saloons, railway stations, steamboat landings, street corners and other places with nothing particular to do, and a reasonable amount of health and strength to do it with, please take notice. Loafing is now illegal. The recent order-in-council declares "all persons domiciled in Canada who are idle, and who are without any other absence of reasonable grounds to the contrary, engage in such occupations."

At this stage in the world's history, when every man available is necessary to the safety of the country, it seems a remarkable thing that there are any of the class above referred to left in Canada, but apparently there are. Poolrooms, cabarets, picture shows report a thriving business.
The hobo is still a frequent visitor on his aimless way back and forth.
There are still "sperts" at large with nothing to do but smoke cigarettes and go to ball games and other light amusement. Quite rightly, the Government has made it illegal for these persons to waste their time and their strength on cigarettes and gentle amusements, tangy teas and pinocle in the barn. They are now ordered to get to work, and if they do not work as free men, they will have to work as prisoners, and work at "hard labor."

In this connection it is interesting to compare the useful work done by red by shoe-shiners, soda-fountain dispensers, theatre salvers, ribbon salesmen and such useful citizens as compared with the tramps and the "spert" who live on his wife. It is doubtful if there is much to really choose between these two classes so far as economical results to society are concerned. The man that cleans your boots might very well be employed at hoing potatoes, leaving his customer to spare five minutes of his valuable time to clean his own boots. The man who has so little mankind in him as to be content to spend his days selling baby ribbon in a departmental store, would achieve an improved manhood driving a team on a farm, if he could be trusted to do so, or helping with the chores around a barn.

The new law, while not going far as to displace men from non-essential or silly employments which could better be filled by young girls, still makes it difficult for a man to really loaf. The age limit is from 16 to 60, during which a man is supposed to be capable of some kind of useful work, and if he is not so engaged he must have certain reasonable excuse.
First, he must be a bona-fide student in training for some useful occupation, or attending some recognized educational institution. Or he must be some one who is out of a job temporarily owing to difficulties with his employer, common to similar difficulties with his fellow employees and the same employer. Or he must be reasonably unable to find a job. Other excuses do not go.

Convictions for an offence under this new Anti-Loafing law before a magistrate renders the offender liable to a penalty not exceeding $100 and costs, and in default of the offender's ability to pay, he must go to prison for a period of not exceeding six months in a common jail or any institution or any farm owned by a municipality or Province established for such a purpose, and put to the time at hard labor. Where a conviction is obtained by a municipality, the municipal treasury will receive the fine. Where proceedings are instituted by a Provincial officer, the Provincial treasury shall receive the money.
Where proceeds are instituted within a municipality by any other person, the fine is divided equally between the municipality and the Province.

A WESTERN TOWN THAT FOSTERED THE TRUE SPIRIT

(Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act.)
Some few years ago a certain growing Western town, in the course of a campaign advertising the town and district as offering superior attractions for new settlers, laid great stress upon the fact that no business enterprise had ever gone bankrupt there.

"Not a single business failure has ever been recorded here," was the proud boast of the publicity matter. Today that same town is one of the most prosperous young cities of the country, while the farmers of the district enjoy many splendid modern advantages, and the wage earners are happy and contented. Town property and farm lands have gone to extraordinary figures, with a lively demand always in evidence.

The secret of the success of this town and district is entirely due to the splendid spirit of community loyalty which started with the pioneers and which was encouraged and fostered by the great majority of the newcomers. These were readily imbued with the very atmosphere of home proprietorship that abounded on all sides and was so enthusiastically practiced.

The point for absorption is that these people realized that every person who entered the business of the community was a direct injury to every person resident therein, because the first of the unfavorable reflections cast upon the community as a whole and later because it was a policy that paid good dividends.

In a word, the people of this town and district recognized the truth of the great fundamental principle that loyalty to home interests is progress, whereas disloyalty to home interests is retrogression.

Progression means going ahead; retrogression means going behind, and no place or no man or woman in this age can stand still. As individuals and as communities we must go either forward or backward. If everywhere would but recognize the importance of the injunction that home enterprises to exist and prosper must be loyally supported by home people, how much happier would be both our material and mental state.

The person who speaks abroad what is legitimately home money is not only doing a community injustice, but sets an example that others will follow and, in the long run, the practice proves disastrous to all. It is a practice that will kill progress, deplete employment, lower financial values, disorganize industry and divert creative energy.

On the other hand, nothing is more profitable, nothing more praiseworthy, nothing more patriotic than loyalty to the home merchant and all the home institutions of your community. Start in today and prove it out for yourself.

CHILD SAVING PROBLEMS

During the year 1916, Alberta, in common with the great majority of communities engaged in war, experienced a war-time increase in juvenile delinquency of about 35 per cent. That at the end of that year the tide had reached its maximum, and although during 1917, it did not recede to any appreciable extent, no further increase was shown, and in all probability no further increase will be noted, is one of the interesting statements contained in the annual report of the Department of Dependent and Delinquent Children, just issued.

During the year, 525 delinquent children were dealt with, institutional treatment was found necessary only for about one out of every 15 of them. Probation and other less drastic remedies were sufficient in the great majority of cases.

The report indicates that the problem of the neglected child is yet far from being solved. Some 206 neglected children were brought under the care of the Department during the year. The most difficult cases to deal with are those in which immoral or vicious living on the part of the parents or other adults have contributed to this neglect.

The Department lays great stress upon the placement system. During the year some 747 children were placed in foster homes. It is the claim of the Department that at least 80 per cent. of these cases, good homes were secured and the children are making satisfactory progress.

Among the immediate necessities in solving these great problems, the report instances pensions for widows, or otherwise handicapped mothers, a psychiatric clinic in connection with the Juvenile Court, in order that each child may be studied with a view to understanding its disposition and ability, and some authority to inspect homes where children are being kept for pay. It is also suggested that owing to the increased cost of the maintenance of boys at the Portage la Prairie Industrial Training School, the Government should consider the advisability of starting an industrial farm for delinquent boys in the Province. The suggestion is that model buildings be erected, and that the boys learn to farm under the instruction of capable mentors. The report deals briefly with almost every phase of the child-saving problem.

A Ford Car Takes the Place of all These Things

WHEN you own a Ford you can do away with many articles that are a source of continuous expense to the man who still drives a horse. For instance, not only your driving-horse and buggy, but the single harness, blanket, whip, currycomb, brushes, horse-shoes, pitch-forks, feed-bins, etc.

In their place you have a speedy, dependable, dignified, roomy Ford Car—complete in itself. It is vastly superior to the narrow, cramped buggy that travels so slowly. And when a Ford is standing idle it does not eat three meals a day, and it requires no "looking after."

A Ford will save you time, trouble, and money. It is the utility car for the busy farmer and his family.

WHY NEGLECT THE SINGING VOICE?

It is somewhat surprising that so many people with potentially good voices do not take the trouble to have some vocal training. Many untrained singers do not realize their defects of pronunciation, etc., and how the eradication of these faults would greatly improve their vocal tone; but, to effect this, it is absolutely necessary that the training should be received from a thoroughly competent teacher, otherwise more harm may be done than good.

The diploma of Licentiate of the Royal Academy of Music (L.R.A.M.), which was granted to Mr. W. A. Montgomery, Mus. Bac, F.R.C.O., states that "he is judged to be fully qualified for the branch of singing as a teacher."

Mr. Montgomery's system in teaching Voice Production and Singing is based on the old Italian method, and is not simply to assist his pupils in learning a few songs, but to seriously study with them the best method of producing the voice, and to aid the student in the comprehensive application of the knowledge acquired to songs and oratorios.

Diamond Dust

About twenty-five members turned out to the baseball meeting, held in J. L. McCormick's store on Saturday evening, for the purpose of organizing for the season of 1918. The prospects are very favorable and Manager Moffatt expressed himself as more than pleased with the outlook. The meeting was called to order by Cy. Walker. The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Bill McKenke.
Vice President—Mr. Murchison.
Manager—Ernie Moffatt.

Sec. Treas.—Jas. Hies.
A captain will be chosen at the first game. It was decided to hold two practices a week, on Tuesday and Friday evenings, from 6.30 to 8.30. A full turn-out is expected at every practice and ladies are specially invited to attend.

A fiery speech was delivered by our scrappy manager, and after the eloquent delivery of his speech (entitled "Spirit") we are of the opinion that W. J. Bryan is a back number. Mgr. Moffatt had his honours spellbound and everyone present was of the opinion that with such a capable man at the helm things looked good for a winning team in Clarendon this year. The meeting then adjourned until further notice.

Skim Milk Substitutes for Swine

The use of milk substitutes for the weaned pig has received considerable attention on the Experimental Farm Station. An average of results of three years' work at Ottawa with tankage reveals the following:—

1. That an addition to a ration already containing milk, oil meal is superior to tankage.
2. That a direct replacement of milk by tankage, shows the lowest gains and the highest cost of production of five rations fed.
3. That the milk receiving no tankage usually made highest gains at the lowest cost.
4. That tankage, while useful in correcting an unbalanced ration, showed up poorly when added to rations already showing variety and fair balance, particularly illustrating the comparative value of skim milk.

Grain, oil meal and milk required 139 pounds meal per pound gain; grain, tankage and milk, 164 pounds; grain, tankage and water 225.9 pounds; and grain and milk, 154 pounds.

As mentioned, these results were obtained from an experiment in triplicate, or carried on similarly in three consecutive years. That tankage, however, may be produced as a fair substitute for milk, while by no means equaling it, would be indicated by an experiment at the Experimental Station at Brandon. Here three lots of pigs were fed. No. 1, grain only; No. 2, grain and tankage; No. 3, grain and buttermilk. While high gains at a low cost were particularly in evidence as the result of feeding buttermilk, a very considerable reduction in cost of production and a marked increase in gains, are seen where tankage was added to the straight grain ration. Grain only made gains of 92 pounds daily costing 9.8 cents per pound; grain and buttermilk, 167 pounds daily costing 6 cents per pound. This bears out what has been pointed out, that as a balance for a ration low in protein, or for weaners, or a ration lacking milk, tankage has a place, but that, as an addition to an already balanced and suitable ration, no adequate return is likely from the use of high priced feed by production.

A further qualified comparison of milk substitutes for treated pigs was afforded at Ottawa in 1917. Here skim milk was fed to all lots; meal and milk, meal, milk and 10 per cent. tankage; meal, milk and 10 per cent. fish meal. The grain and milk lot gave slightly cheaper gains and was superior in condition, indicating that the addition of the concentrates mentioned was not economical.

For growing hogs fed on dry lot or outside paddock, milk showing no distinct advantage at Ottawa in 1917 in self-feeding trials. Hogs fed milk in self-feeders with skim milk in troughs gave gains of 105 pounds daily costing 8.3 cents per pound. Meal, fed, with tankage replacing milk with another lot, gave gains of 100 pounds daily costing 10.2 cents per pound. The skim milk fed lot required 139 pounds meal and the tankage fed pigs 232 pounds meal per pound gain.

In the experiments referred to in the foregoing, all lots were practically identical in age, weight and thrift, at the start of experiments. Skim milk is the natural food for the weanling and weaned. Tankage, blood meal and fish meal, where these feeds are procurable, may be regarded as fairly efficient substitutes.

Make Money With Us in Oil!

WE ARE NOW DRILLING IN WYOMING

Warm Springs, Wyoming—Already one of the big producing fields of the State. Twelve wells have been completed and fortunate stockholders are drawing big dividends every month in the year. This a "shallow" field and the drilling cost is at a minimum. Through a peculiar turn of fortune the Van Duzen Co. was able to secure a valuable lease on this structure. At least a dozen companies are now drilling towards the oil producing sands in the Warm Springs dome and we do not expect to lose much time in starting our operations. Remember this is a producing field.

Sundance-Upton Fields, Wyoming—We were in this field just before the boom started and have 6,000 acres under lease on the very apex of the structure. This dome bids fair to be one of the best fields in this State and our large acreage will always make this the big company of this big field. We are drilling in this field.

Salt Creek, Wyoming—This is the most consistent oil producing field in all the world, and although the field is but five years old, it has made more wealthy people than any of the big fields of Wyoming. The wide-awake men who are at the head of this company have secured 320 acres of land less than a half mile from one of the largest gushers in the field. One 500-barrel well in this field at $1.00 per barrel would mean more than 20 per cent. per annum on the total capitalization of the Van Duzen Oil Co. We have room for 64 well on our property.

The Crazy Woman's Pocket, Montana—This dome has been recognized by many geologists to be most perfect structure for an oil reservoir in all of America. Two other companies have wells in process of completion on this dome, and it is reported that one of them has already encountered an oil producing sand. The Van Duzen Oil Co. has secured 560 acres of deeded land midway between the two wells now drilling. Our derrick is now in the course of construction. When this field is proven it will be the first producing field in Montana. Boom prices will prevail and our stock is sure to go sky-high.

Powder River Junction, Wyoming—We have a one-third location's interest in three one-quarter sections lying within a quarter of a mile from a well now being drilled by the famous Oil Oil Co. This dome is looked upon as being one of the coming fields of the State. Shallow drilling and its proximity to rail transportation will make this field a big dividend payer.

Poster's forecast of weather is not very encouraging for Southern Alberta. The prediction is "that June will be warmer than usual with less moisture than usual." There will be occasional showers with no heavy rain. Here's hoping the weather prophet is badly mistaken about the moisture part.

'The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin'

An American critic says: "After you have witnessed this stirring photo play you will agree with us that you have never been so thrilled in a long time. It is not a little picture, it has no plot to speak of, and there is no one story, just the making of a presentation which will stir you to the breaking point. All the vital points of the world war are brought out with a faithfulness to detail and a realism which can't be beaten. The long list of principals all deserve special mention, but the part of the Kaiser, as played by Rupert Julian, is a masterpiece in screen acting. This wonderful production will be at the Rex, Claresholm, next Monday and Tuesday. Don't miss it. Standing room will be at a premium."

Another Tag Day

Saturday, June 8th, is a general Tag Day throughout Alberta for the Navy League of Canada.

Had it not been for our brave sailors Canada would be in the same position to-day as Belgium, our country overrun, our women and children murdered, and many atrocities committed, but the Sailors have been our protecting shield; they have held up the flag and destroyed the enemy's fleet; they have kept our ports open; they have permitted our troops to cross the ocean without mishap. Through their efforts our food products have been sent regularly across, and our boys at the front fed. The farmer of this country owes the high cost of food products to the men of the Navy and Merchant Service. Every man, woman and child should be willing to contribute largely to assist the Navy League. We have not yet realized the great debt we owe to the Sailor not only of the Navy, but the Merchant Service, the men of the North Sea. Many of these men have already given their lives for our interest, and we must protect their widows and children.

CORRESPONDENCEA LADY FROM MISSOURI

Editor of Review Advertiser—Will you give me space to ask a few questions? I thought by what I read in the Calgary papers that we housekeepers were to have cheap fish on meatless days. My experience has been that only once have I been able to obtain the cheap fish from our local meat markets. When I have asked about fish, I have always received a very unsatisfactory answer—"They weren't quite sure whether they could get it or not," or "They weren't sure whether they had it or not." Salmon and halibut, the two most expensive fish, are on the market, but I find them more expensive than beef. I would like to know other housekeepers have had a similar experience and how they manage on meatless days.

I will say that the ones I did get the cheap fish (12c. lb.) it was delicious; not a bit "strong", but pleasant and palatable. I would like to know if it is impossible for housekeepers have had the cheap fish for them to handle it?

HOUSEKEEPER.

Large stock of these gates on hand and made up. All ready to hang, including hinges. Look them over and get prices. We will figure your bill of material by anything you contemplate building. ESTIMATES FREE. GIVE US A CALL.
